GATHERED TOGETHER FOR FUTURE CAREFUL CONSIDERATION.

Opinions as to the results of the recent tariff war and the effects of the tariff on the country are as follows:

TARIFF PICTURES.

During the three months ending December 31, 1921, this country made

3,469,821 pounds of tin and tinned plates. In the quarter ending December 31, 1922, our domestic production of the same kind of plates reached 30,000,000 pounds.

The Democratic leaders would be a great deal easier in their minds just now if the country would kindly forget the pledges made in the Chicago platform.

In view of recent proceedings, isn't it about time that the Kansas Populists renounced their high sounding agitation and become merely as plain, everyday anarchists?

It was a particularly heartless man who suggested that the present frigid atmosphere was only a reflection of the chill which the selection of Gresham as Secretary of State has caused to pervade the Democratic party.

The latest Mugwump reason for not annexing Hawaii is delightfully Mugwumpish. We should not give Hawaii the benefit of a stable and civilized government, declares The New York Evening Post, because the Chinese immigrants who have taken up their abode on the islands might object.

There was a surplus four years ago. There is none now. Where is it? The answer is simple, says The Philadelphia Press. It has been used in paying off the debt, which is what every man and every country ought to use a surplus for. This is the way the account stands as to the reduction of the bonded debt:

Bonded debt, March 4th, 1889. $1,196,149,030
Bonds sold, March 4th, 1889. 923,729,722
Reduction under Cleveland. $273,419,328
Bonded debt, March 1st, 1889. 923,729,722
Bonds sold, February 1st, 1893. 350,083,660
Reduction under Harrison. $337,606,062

The indictment of Rev. E. M. Buswell, a Nebraska apostle of "Christian science," for engaging in a practice of healing without a formal diploma, is attracting renewed attention to the extraordinary claims of this sect. Several deaths which have lately occurred in Nebraska are credited to the practices of the "scientists," and public indignation, it is said, demands that the leader be punished. Buswell denies that he has used any medicine, but his prosecutors point to the state law, which declares that "any person shall be regarded as practicing medicine within the meaning of this act who shall practice on, profess to heal, or prescribe for or otherwise treat any physical or mental ailment of another." According to this statute the administering of medicine is not necessary to constitute an infraction of the law. Buswell does not appear to dispute the charge that he has pre-tended to effect physical cures. In case he is convicted a heavy fine or imprisonment, or both, await him.

Exchanged Cards. Victor K. Shipp, a Paris grocer, had business envelopes printed with President-elect Cleveland's picture in a conspicuous place. Mr. Shipp wrote to Mr. Cleveland as follows:

Hon. Grover Cleveland, Lakewood, N. J.: I am not an office-seeker, nor have I ever asked for one. I am a Cleveland man since 1884, and in my business card used since your nomination. I am glad to inform you that this state will succeed John G. Carlisle in the Senate, with Hon. William Lindsay, the brainiest man in all the broad land. A Cleveland man all through. If Hon. W. C. F. Breckinridge is elected Speaker, Kentucky will be as much Cleveland as I have been. I am not a politician but a firm Democrat.

Victor K. Shipp. Mr. Cleveland replied to the letter and inclosed his own card to Mr. Shipp.

A SPECIAL from Atlanta to The Courier-Journal says there is sadness among the would-be office-holders of Georgia. The army is no Corporal's guard—it is many strong, all Colonels—and every Colonel wants something big. In a day or two after HOKK SMITH's selection as a Cabinet officer became known there was great joy in the camp. Every fellow thought he had an inside cinch on HOKK's influence, and all knew that HOKK was to be the big man at court, so far as Georgia is concerned. But a large amount of sorrow is now mixed with that joy. HOKK's paper has been speaking, and what it has said does not please the gentlemen who are willing to sacrifice themselves.

The Journal has been laying stress on the Civil Service law. Mr. SMITH has always been a strong advocate of Civil Service Reform, but the fellow thought when he got in he would let up and help Georgia Democracy come to the front. They have looked with longing eyes on the many fat snaps in the Interior Department, especially since the selection of Judge GREENHAM is supposed to chop off the Democratic Cornucopia of appointments, but it seems they are doomed to disappointment. The Journal has taken a strong stand on this question of Civil Service, and that means that HOKK, who was as warm an advocate of the spoils-theory theory as anybody during the campaign, has changed front, and the Georgia Colonel who wants an office now must pass an examination. This is something, it is needless to say, to which the average Colonel greatly objects, and while there is much praise for HOKK on the surface, there is great indignation among the rank and file of the party, which finds expression on the quiet against him.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 23.—Dr. J. N. It is a very sudden and virulent epidemic of the disease, there already having been nine cases and nine deaths. These deaths were confined to four different families, and the disease is spreading. Secretary McCormack telegraphed to Dr. J. C. Morehead, of Morgantown, to proceed at once to the infected district and isolate the victims. The people there are greatly frightened at the situation.
